

iGuy is a straight-to-the-point, lighthearted empowerment workshop that prepares 9-12 year old boys to make smart decisions in even the toughest situations. In this 2 hour workshop we will:

- challenge society's definition of masculinity
- unmask our secret identity
- blow off some steam (in a healthy way)
- tackle online safety
- help build relationships we can feel proud of

In a style that makes sense to guys, Saleema Noon's team takes the role of older brother, giving your son the skills and information needed to ace his teenage years.

iGuy – Saturday November 18, 2017 3:30 PM - 5:30 PM
